UNITED STATES' PROPOSED VOIR DIRE

The United States of America, by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby files Proposed Voir Dire Questions, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 24(a)(2).

In addition to the Court's general introduction and explanation, including whether the prospective jurors are acquainted with any of the parties, the United States would request additional questions regarding state and federal prosecutions as follows:

1. Some crimes that are traditionally brought in the state courts can be prosecuted federally if they have some affect or potential affect on interstate commerce. Do any of you have difficulty accepting this?
2. You may have your own impression about what types of cases should be prosecuted by the state and what types of cases should be prosecuted federally. Are you willing to apply the law I give you, even if you do not agree with it?
3. Have you ever been a victim of a robbery?
4. Have you ever been a witness to a robbery?
5. Have you even been part of a business that was robbed?
6. Have you, your family or your close friends had any dealings with the Honolulu Police Department or the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms? If so, what were those dealings?
 - a. Do you feel that these dealings were properly resolved?
 - b. Do you have any feelings of dissatisfaction because of those dealings?

DATED: March 22, 2006, at Honolulu, Hawaii.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD H. KUBO, JR.
United States Attorney
District of Hawaii
